

ENGLISH 183
CLOZE TEST A

Fill in the gaps below with the best word or phrase. Refer to the 'Keys' section to check your answers.

25 July, 1978: Louise Brown, the world's first 'test-tube baby', is born thanks to _____[1] of in vitro fertilization by gynaecologist Patrick Steptoe and physiologist Robert Edwards.

23 February, 1997: The birth of Dolly the Sheep is revealed to the world. Dolly is created by scientists led by Prof. Ian Wilmutt of the Roslin Institute, near Edinburgh, _____[2] nuclear transfer.

11 February, 2001: Scientists disclose the first full draft of the human genome and show that humans have _____[3] fewer genes, around 30,000, than previously estimated.

13 June, 2004: It is announced that scientists in Newcastle upon Tyne are to be given _____[4] approval to create the first cloned human embryo in Britain. The embryos are to be used _____[5] as sources of stem cells.

Adapted from observer.guardian.co.uk

1.
 - A. the developing
 - B. developed
 - C. the development
 - D. a development
2.
 - A. uses a technique known by
 - B. using a technique known as
 - C. used a technique known as
 - D. who are using a technique known for 3.
 - A. some
 - B. any
 - C. less
 - D. far
4.
 - A. a
 - B. an
 - C. some
 - D. 0
5.
 - A. exclusively
 - B. maybe
 - C. conventionally
 - D. commonly