

Dr. Severino A. Gabato, Jr.

Senior Veterinary Laboratory Specialist

Health Management:

supervise the veterinarians in carrying out regular health status check of all species & strains of laboratory animals by ocular inspection on a routine daily basis.

Keep record of time mating process in selected species of laboratory animals. Taking notes of all the dates of birth and number of pups.

Involvement in surgery:

Head of ARC surgical team.

Experimental Assignment:

Supervising ARC technical staff, Masters & PhD. Students who were involved in doing experiments in laboratory animals.

Safety Committee:

Representing the ARC as a Departmental safety officer regarding matters and issues regarding safety regulations.

Overseeing the overall status of all laboratory rodents and lagomorphs concerning their health, breeding, husbandry management and full maintenance of livestock including disease models such as Zucker Rats, Diabetic Mutant Mice & Alzheimer's Mice.