

ADVERTISEMENT FOR HEALTH ECONOMIST

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY MEDICINE AND BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCES FACULTY OF MEDICINE

Text for advertisement

Applications are invited for the position of a Health Economist in the Department of Community Medicine and Behavioural Sciences. Candidates may apply for appointment at the rank of Assistant, Associate or Full Professor.

Applicants should have a Ph.D. or equivalent degree in a field of study that provides a foundation for specialisation in Economics, Health Economics, or Health Economics and Policy. They should also have a first degree in a relevant field. Applicants should also have a demonstrated interest in conducting individual and collaborative research on health and medical issues with related publications in refereed international journals. Candidates should have some prior teaching experience, preferably in a medically relevant setting.

The responsibilities of this position include teaching pre-professional, pre-clinical and clinical medical and graduate students with involvement in the planning and development of a Master of Public Health degree program. Teaching is conducted in a multidisciplinary environment with other academic staff in fields such as Sociology, Psychology, Epidemiology, Ethics, Occupational and Environmental Health, Health Education, Health policy and Management and Biostatistics. The language of instruction at the Faculty of Medicine is English.

*Approximate Total Annual Combined Salary and Housing Allowance

Professor: KD 40,200 – KD 44,304 (~US$ 144,720 – US$ 159,494)

Associate Professor: KD 31,980 – KD 36,084 (~US$ 115,128 – US$ 129,902)

Assistant Professor: KD 26,760 – KD 30,840 (~US$ 96,336 – US$ 111,024)

*These amounts are shown to provide prospective applicants with an approximate indication of the general levels of remuneration. For specific individuals the amounts will vary in accordance with years of experience and marital status. The conversion of Kuwaiti dinar amounts to U.S. dollar amounts, here and elsewhere in the advertisement, will vary in accordance with currency exchange rates. Higher levels of remuneration may apply for applicants who are board certified in a medical specialty. There is no income tax in Kuwait and currency is transferable without restriction.

Other benefits:

1. Sixty days paid summer leave and a two-week mid-year break.
2. A one-time furniture allowance of $11,660 to $15,000 depending on marital status.
3. A $400 annual social allowance for each child.
4. Fees are paid for up to 3 children attending private primary and secondary schools in Kuwait.
5. Annual round-trip air tickets to home country for staff member, spouse and dependent children.
6. Free national health insurance.
7. Assistance with expenses for attendance at one approved conference per year.

8. Baggage and freight allowance to assist relocation.
9. End-of service gratuity (one month's basic salary for each year of service).

Application letters should be accompanied by a complete curriculum vitae, degree transcripts and copies of degree certificates. Where possible, the grades for degrees should be stated in terms of the GPA scale from 0 to 4 that is used in the U.S.A. The names, addresses, fax numbers and e-mail addresses (if available) of three referees should be provided in the application and it should be addressed to:

The Dean (Recruitment Office),
Faculty of Medicine, Kuwait University,
P.O. Box 24923, Safat 13110,
Kuwait.
Fax: + 965 25318454