

Pain Questions

1. Question

- a. financial
- b. physical
- c. psychological
- d. all of the above

2. Question

- a. acute pain is uncommon in nursing home residents.
- b. acute pain is common in nursing home residents
- c. acute pain is fairly common following surgery
- b. acute pain is prevalent among cancer patients

3. Question

- a. post-accident
- b. arthritis
- c. low back pain
- d. fibromyalgia

4. Question

- a. acute pain is difficult to control, but may help doctors diagnose underlying disease
- b. acute pain is easy to control, and may help doctors diagnose underlying disease
- c. chronic pain is difficult to control, and may lead to hopefulness and anxiety.
- d. chronic pain is easy to control, but may lead to hopefulness and anxiety

5. Question

- a. arthritis pain
- b. vascular pain
- c. neuropathic pain
- d. cancer pain

6. Question

- a. cancer pain
- b. vascular pain
- c. neuropathic pain
- d. migraine

7. Question

- a. its appearance
- b. its cause
- c. its intensity
- d. its duration

8. Question

- a. electrodes
- b. needles
- c. nerves
- d. muscles

9. Question

- a. nerve conduction studies
- b. EMG
- c. MRI
- d. X-rays

10. Question

- a. antidepressants
- b. analgesics
- c. anti-convulsives
- d. opioids

11. Question

- a. antidepressants
- b. analgesics
- c. anti-convulsives
- d. opioids

12. Question

- a. antidepressants
- b. analgesics
- c. anti-convulsives
- d. opioids

13. Question

- a. they cause hyperacidity
- b. they are addictive
- c. they do their job well
- d. they tranquilize patients

14. Question

- a. to cure the underlying disease
- b. to arrest the underlying disease
- c. to restore a normal lifestyle
- d. b and c

15. Question

- a. they are used only by dentists
- b. they can be used to prevent pain
- c. they can be used to diagnose pain
- d. b and c

16. Question

- a. to repair nerve injuries
- b. to create nerve blocks
- c. to repair muscles
- d. a and b

17. Question

- a. lack of physician interest
- b. poor pain assessment
- c. fear of the law
- d. b and c

18. Question

- a. there are so many treatment options that pain is well-controlled in most patients.
- b. in spite of the fact that there are many treatment options, many patients continue to suffer from pain
- c. although much research is underway, researchers understand little about the causes of pain
- d. undertreatment of pain remains a problem despite the fact that pain is well-controlled in most patients