

Cyanide Poisoning Questions

- 1) Question
 - a) it kills red blood cells
 - b) it increases the use of oxygen
 - c) it does not allow the body to use oxygen
 - d) it stops blood from flowing

- 2) Question
 - a) consumption of rare plants
 - b) inhalation of smoke from burning silk
 - c) being a photographer
 - d) all of the above

- 3) Question
 - a) At one point laetrile was given to treat cancer.
 - b) Consumption of laetrile was found to be related to the onset of cyanide poisoning.
 - c) Laetrile was actually a form of cyanide.
 - d) Apricot pits were a component of laetrile.

- 4) Question
 - a) true
 - b) false

- 5) Question
 - a) true
 - b) false

- 6) Question
 - a) true
 - b) false

- 7) Question
 - a) they both affect the throat
 - b) they are both associated with shortness of breath
 - c) they both occur as a result of a lack of oxygen
 - d) both b and c

- 8) Question
 - a) sudden collapse of the heart
 - b) indigestion
 - c) nausea
 - d) seizure

- 9) Question
 - a) fever and confusion

- b) apnea and fast breathing
 - c) slow heartbeat and bitter smelling breath
 - d) general weakness and coma
- 10) Question
- a) true
 - b) false
- 11) Question
- a) the victim is given mouth-to-mouth resuscitation
 - b) a blood test is taken
 - c) a ventilating tube is inserted to help the victim breathe
 - d) his/her stomach is pumped
- 12) Question
- a) to check where the cyanide has traveled on the body
 - b) to prevent other people from being contaminated
 - c) to make it easier to administer oxygen therapy
 - d) all of the above
- 13) Question
- a) oxygen therapy
 - b) intravenous antibiotics
 - c) medication
 - d) surgery
- 14) Question
- a) it contains three types of medication
 - b) the antidote kit is completely effective
 - c) the antidote kit prevents further chances of cyanide poisoning
 - d) both b and c