I.   CAREER GOALS AND PROFESSIONAL OBJECTIVES

Through the use of communication and advanced technology, solve problems of professional practice present in pharmacy and related health care professions. Apply systems approach to insure that stated objectives are achieved in a comprehensive and effective manner. Through collaboration with other professionals, pursue projects which will create and transmit drug knowledge needed by the public.

II.   PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

A.   Master of Science in Instructional Systems Technology, Indiana University (August 1977).

B.   Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Communication Through Media (dual major), University of Maine (May, 1975).

III.   PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

    A. Professor Emeritus, Department of Pharmacy Care Systems (2009), Harrison School of Pharmacy.

    B. Professor, Department of Pharmacy Care Systems (2004), Harrison School of Pharmacy.

    C. Associate Professor, Department of Pharmacy Care Systems (1995), Harrison School of Pharmacy, Auburn University.

D. Assistant Professor, Department of Pharmacy Care Systems (1990), Harrison School of Pharmacy; Adjunct Assistant Professor, Department of Speech Communication, College of Liberal Arts (1991); Associate Member of the Graduate Faculty (1994), Auburn University.

E. Director of the Office of Instructional Design; Instructor, Department of Pharmacy Care Systems, School of Pharmacy, Auburn University (1979-1990).

F. Video Production Specialist, Instructor, Department of Pharmacy Care Systems, School of Pharmacy, Auburn University (1977-1979).

G. Graduate Production Assistant, School of Business, Indiana University (1976-1977).

H. Audio-Visual Equipment Specialist, Lecturer I, University of Maine, Farmington, MA (1973-1976).

I. Self-Employed, Electronic Repair Technician, Farmington, Maine (1971-1973).

J. US Army Paratrooper, Special Forces, Communication Specialist, Republic of Vietnam, Panama Canal Zone (1969-1971).

IV. COURSES TAUGHT

A. IM 254 Instructional Television Production; Instructional Media Department; University of Maine, Farmington.

B. HE 262 Household Equipment; Home Economics Department; University of Maine, Farmington.

C. PCS 471 Professional Communication; Pharmacy Care Systems; Auburn University. (Co-taught with Bruce A. Berger.)

D. PCS 495 Special Problems; Interpersonal Communication and Computer Topics, Pharmacy Care Systems Department; Auburn University.

E. U 399 Experiential Learning; University Curriculum; Auburn University.

F. SC 431 Mass Communication Workshop; Speech Communication Department; Auburn University.

G. SC 539 Internship; Speech Communication Department; Auburn University.

H.   JM 422-423 Journalism Workshop; Journalism Department; Auburn University.

I.   PCS 472 Professional Communication II; Pharmacy Care Systems; Auburn University.

J.   PCS 362 Introduction to Medication Information Systems; Pharmacy Care Systems; Auburn University.

K.   PCS 695 Special Problems; Graduate individualized and experiential learning in the content areas of technology, communication and/or research problems.

V.   ORGANIZATIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

A.   American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy

B.   National Audio-Visual Association

C.   Health Education Media Association

D.   Association for Educational Communication Technology

E.   Alabama Pharmaceutical Association

F.   Alabama Society of Hospital Pharmacists

G.   Alabama Joint Commission on Pharmacy

H.   International Interactive Communication Society

I.   International Pharmaceutical Federation

J.   Member of Editorial Board for Journal of Pharmaceutical Care

K.   Member of the California Pharmacists Association

VI.   SERVICE

A.   Service to University

1.   School of Pharmacy
   a.   Building Committee (1977-78)

b.   Professional and Academic Standards (1979-Present)
c.   Student Faculty Relations (1981)
