

FACULTY PROFILE

Eiman B. Al Alawadhi, BSc, MSc, PhD

- ◆ Assistant Professor, Epidemiology and Biostatistics
Faculty of Public Health, Kuwait University

Address:

P.O.Box 24923
Safat 13110 Kuwait

Email: ealawadhi@hsc.edu.kw

Office: +(965) 246-34380

Professional Summary

Eiman Alawadhi, BSc, MSc, Ph.D., is an epidemiologist in the Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics at Kuwait University's Faculty of Public Health. She is involved in developing and teaching various courses of the BSc in Health and Community Studies. Dr Alawadhi's current research focuses on population-based cancer survival, assessing progress in cancer overtime, risk factors of breast cancer, assessing cancer trends in the Gulf region, as well as breast, cervical and colorectal cancer screening in Kuwait.

Education and Training

- PhD, Epidemiology and Population Health, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, UK
- Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) Certification, Didactic Program in Dietetics (DPD), University of Houston, USA
- MSc, Public Health Nutrition, Colorado State University, USA,
- BSc, Double major: Dietetics and Nutrition, Fitness & Health, Purdue University, USA

Research Interests and Projects

Dr Alawadhi's research interests include the following areas: cancer epidemiology, trends and inequalities in cancer incidence, mortality and survival, vital statistics, cancer screening, early detection and cancer awareness, public health nutrition, obesity.

Selected Publications

Alawadhi E, Al-Awadi A, Elbasmi A, Coleman MP, Allemani C. Cancer Survival by Stage at Diagnosis in Kuwait: A Population-Based Study. Journal of Oncology 2019; 8463195

Alawadhi E, Al-Awadi A, Elbasmi A, Coleman MP, Allemani C. Cancer survival trends in Kuwait, 2000-2013: A population-based study. The Gulf Journal of Oncology 2019; 1(29): 39-52.

Alawadhi E, Al-Awadi A, Elbasmi A, Coleman MP, Allemani C. A Novel Approach to Obtain Follow-up Data on the Vital Status of Registered Cancer Patients: The Kuwait Cancer Registry Experience. The Gulf Journal of Oncology 2019; 1(29): 31-8.